

EVS CASE STUDY (SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT)

2024-25

Title Page:

- Title of the Case Study
- Your Name
- Course Name
- Instructor's Name :Dr.Divya Gairola
- Date

Introduction:

- Provide a brief overview of the environmental issue or topic being studied.
- Explain the relevance and significance of the case study in the context of environmental studies.

Background:

- Offer background information on the environmental problem or situation.
- Include historical context, if applicable.
- Discuss the affected ecosystem, community, or species.

Objective or Problem Statement:

- Clearly define the objective of the case study or the specific environmental problem being addressed.

Literature Review:

- Include relevant literature, theories, or existing research related to the environmental issue.
- Discuss any scientific principles or concepts pertinent to the case.

Methodology:

- Describe the methods used to collect data or analyze the environmental situation.

- Explain why these methods are appropriate and how they contribute to understanding the issue.

Environmental Analysis:

- Present your findings from the data collection or analysis.
- Include maps, charts, graphs, or other visuals to illustrate key environmental factors.
- Identify any patterns, trends, or anomalies.

Impact Assessment:

- Evaluate the impact of the environmental issue on ecosystems, communities, or human health.
- Discuss any potential long-term consequences.

Case Study Discussion:

- Analyze the root causes of the environmental problem.
- Consider the social, economic, and political factors influencing the issue.

Mitigation or Solutions:

- Propose potential solutions or mitigation strategies to address the environmental problem.
- Discuss the feasibility and potential effectiveness of each solution.

Implementation Plan:

- Outline a plan for implementing the proposed solutions.
- Consider any challenges or obstacles and suggest ways to overcome them.

Results and Monitoring:

- Discuss the expected results of the proposed solutions.
- Outline a plan for monitoring and evaluating the success of the implemented solutions.

Conclusion:

- Summarize the key points of the case study.
- Emphasize the importance of addressing the environmental issue.

References:

- Include a list of all the sources used in your case study, following a specific citation style.

Appendix (if applicable):

- Include any additional materials, data, or information that supports your case study but is not essential to the main body of the report.

Grading Rubric for Case Studies Assignments

	A (4)	B (3)	C (2)	D/F (1/0)
Focus: Purpose	Purpose is clear	Shows awareness of purpose	Shows limited awareness of purpose	No awareness
Main idea	Clearly presents a main idea and supports it throughout the paper.	There is a main idea supported throughout most of the paper.	Vague sense of a main idea, weakly supported throughout the paper.	No main idea
Organization:	Well-planned and well-thought out. Includes title, introduction, statement of main idea, transitions and conclusion.	Good overall organization includes the main organizational tools.	There is a sense of organization, although some of the organizational tools are used weakly or missing	No sense of organization

Content	Exceptionally well-presented and argued; ideas are detailed, well-developed, supported with specific evidence & facts, as well as examples and specific details.	Well-presented and argued; ideas are detailed, developed and supported with evidence and details, mostly specific.	Content is sound and solid; ideas are present but not particularly developed or supported; some evidence, but usually of a generalized nature.	Content is not sound
Style: Word choice, Tone	There is clear use of a personal and unique style of writing, suited to audience and purpose; the paper holds the reader's interest with ease.	There is an attempt at a personal style but style of writing may be awkward or unsuited to audience and purpose; the reader may lose interest in some sections of the paper.	There is little attempt at style; reads as flat and perhaps uninteresting in content, which is usually generalized and clichéd.	No attempt at style